

BASCOM HILL TO BE FEATURED IN THE NEW WEBISODE SERIES, “CRASH COURSE TO STARDOM”

DEBUTS AUG. 9 AT THECELEBRITYCAFE.COM

“One of the Midwest’s hottest acts” (Shepherd Express), Bascom Hill, is riding a wave of advance acclaim for their self-titled release (out Sept 7 on Arrival Records) and will be featured in the new webisode series, “Crash Course To Stardom” (CCTS), debuting Aug. 9 at TheCelebrityCafe.com.

CCTS is a one week “boot camp,” produced by music industry veterans Jonnie Forster, Jonathan McHugh, and Jonathan Platt, designed to prepare today’s wannabes for becoming tomorrow’s somebody’s. After attending Bascom Hill’s performance at last year’s Summerfest, the producers whisked the band away to Los Angeles for an intense weeklong adventure in preparing for the big time. The band worked tirelessly for the duration, meeting with producers (Matt Wallace), writers (Mitch Allan), stylists, stage coaches, fitness trainers, hair stylists, choreographers, and others to prepare for their big moment.

The series will debut Aug. 9 and new 3-5 minute webisodes will be posted weekly. Viewers will have the opportunity to interact with the band via Twitter and Facebook and also enter to win numerous contests.

About Bascom Hill: Winners of two Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI) Awards, Bascom Hill has been known and loved as one of the Midwest’s top songwriters and hottest acts. They’ve toured with everyone from The Fray to Kenny Wayne Shepherd to Lifehouse and their songs have been heard on various television shows, including *à*America’s Next Top Model*à* and MTV’s *à*Real World*à*. They are hitting the road this fall, performing at clubs across the country.
